To Whom It May Concern

Hang Cheong Steel Factory Ltd., being one of our office furniture suppliers, is trustworthy and reliable. Orders are delivered on time with good quality. In addition, their quality customer service meets our requirement at all times and fulfills the lead time to arrive the site within 4 hours after our emergency call.

One typical example that worths to highlight is that we had made a service call to Hang Cheong in May 2003 to repair a defective lock of a filing cabinet. The technician subsequently found that the cabinet was not supplied by them. Yet he conducted the repair and completed the task to our satisfaction and without levying and service charge to us. We appreciate their good work without damaging the cabinet as well as their positive service attitude.

Yours truly,
